A PRIMERTATION,—Captain Lewis Parrish, master of the

A PRESENTATION.—Captain Lewis Parrish, master of the United States mail steamship Jamestown, has been presented with a handsome silver cream cup by a portion of the officers and crew of the alcoped war Date, as a slight token of their respect and esteem for his conduct to them while on a voyage from Norfelk, Va., to this port, during the past month. The cup is handsomely engaved, and bears a representation of Mount Hermon, the residence of Washington, encircled with there and stripes.

ILE IN THE RIVERS.—Navigation has been greatly impedded during the past four days by the large quantities of floating see in the rivers and bay. The furry boats on the East river are compelled to intermit many of their trips, and the Feck slip ferry boats have stopped for half a day at a time. People living in neighboring cities have been put to great inconvenience, and the see is justly regarded as a very great nuisance. It is not in large packs, but in floating pieces, that become wedged in the slips, preventing the ferry boats from reaching their destination. Some time ago, a proposition was made by Col. Stevens to run booms acrost the river, in such a manner as to confine the ice to certain places, and then when the tides were favorable let them sweep out to sea, but keep the river below Harlem clear. This subject is certainly worthy the attention of some of our city scientific institutions.

STRAMER PLYMOUTH ROCK.—All the necessary preparations for removing the steamer Flymouth Rock from City Island, where she has been ashore for some time past, are now complete. She has been placed in an uoright and perfectly easy position, and is only waiting for the breaking away of the ice, when she will be taken out from her bed and brought to the city.

Pires in New York.

Pire Struct.—A about 8 o'closk Wednesday night, as Catharine McGuire was going to the coal cellar of the house No. 65 litt street, she fell, upsetting the contents of a fuid lamp on her clothing, which took ire, and so severely burned her person that she is not expected to sarvive.

Park Row.—About half-past 11 o'clock Wednesday night, a fire was discovered in a water closet in the rear of No. 25 Park Row, occupied by Baldwin, Studwell & Fisher, wholesale boot and shoe dealers; it was extinguished before any damage was done.

Caution to the Public.—
Since the introduction of my Schiedam schnapps into the United States, a number of liquor mixers in New York, Boston and Philadelphia Lave commenced putting up mixed and poison gin, and calling it schnapps; that name belongs expressly to my article, all others are counterfeits and impositions on the public.
CAUTION TO PERSONS WHO DRINK AT BARS AND HOTELS,
Numerous complaints are made of persons who keep bars es steamboats and in hotels, who fill my empty bottles with common gin, and sell it to the unsuspecting for my Schiedam aromatic schnapps. I would therefore advise all who drink the echnapps at such places to mark; the appearance of the bottle, and if the outside wrapper or label should be defaced.

Another proot of the superiority of Stearns & Marvin's Wilder's Paient, Saiamander Safe.

Memers, Stearns & Marvin, New York:—

Gentlemen. We had a large fire in this city on the morning of the 5th inst., concaming property to the amount of $200,000. The Weiting Slock took fire about 5 o'clock, and before 3 e'clock the entire block was in ashes, making an intense heat, in that fire was one of your safes, sold Professor Weiting, which was on the thref floor, and tell to the bottom of the celler, and after being exposed to the heat for fifty two hours, was taken out of the rubbish, still red hot, and on being opened the contents were found preserved, not snowing the least sign of free, thereby saving some $30,000 in notes and cash securities. The Fire King safe did not stand the test; there were three of them in the fire, two of which were used up. We shall send the full particulars when the Protessor gets home.

EXTRAORDINARY MUTATIONS OF COMMERCE,
The favored circulative channel of yesterday is abandoned today, and in a week the seductive spirit is pointing to a new field for enterprise, where the poor man may realize his dreams of wealth, and the rich man striving for more lose his all. On the one band the ambitious artisan, whose once weekly portion barely supplied his family with life's requisites, becomes the wealthy prince; while on the other the rich merchani, whose power and wealth has shone Aladdin-like, is toppled from his high position, and necessitated, it may be, to ask assistance from his former dependant.
That the above quotation is no tissue of fancy's weaving, the last lew years have furnished abundant proofs among this community; and hence are produced those circumstances which have terminated in the prostration of one of the most favored halls of commerce with which this metropolis was adorned.

which are not always discovered in the popular novels of the day.

From the New York Tribune,
The author writes from a wide observation of society, a familiarity with the best literature of the day, and a fund of native good sense and feeling.

From the Boston Atlas.

Its great merits are its felicity to the resilities of the life it depicts, the beauty of its descriptions, the nice exactness in which it delineates the softer shades of character, and its simple, easy elegance of style.
